GENERAL NEWS

(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN)

Good News for Oregon

NEW YORK, Dec 11—It is officially announced this afternoon that the Oregon Railway and Navigation company have purchased steel rails locomotives and equipment for ... miles of standard gauge railroad to be constructed in eastern Oregon and Washington territory during the year 1880. Fifteen hundred tons of the rails are now on board the ship Orient soon to sail from ... for ... land. One hundred miles will be built from The Dalles up the Columbia river to ... with the existing Walla Walla railroad. Fifty miles more will be an extension of the latter to Snake river and the remainder will connect Texas ferry on Snake river with the heart of the Palouse country. It is stated that these extensions and new constructions are made for the purpose of opening up in conjunction with the Northern Pacific the great grain producing district of eastern Washington territory. The line of the Northern Pacific in this region extends from the mouth of Snake river northeastwardly to the Bitter Root mountains a distance of 200 miles.

Tilden Buys a Railroad

The Herald prints an interview with leading bankers here and citizens of Paterson N J, showing Tilden's recent purchase of the New York and Oswego Midland railroad to be part of the scheme for a new outlet from the west. It is believed by many that he is also buying up the New Jersey Midland its stock having advanced from 65 to 75 in ninety days. The Herald infers that Tilden has been trying to obtain the advantage of the New York Central by equipping a rival road to the west, and that Vanderbilt to head Tilden off by securing and monopolizing western connections and extensions had to let his Wa ... interest into the direction of the New York Central.

The R. R. Combination

BOSTON, Dec 10—The Advertiser says of the new railroad combination: The St Louis and San Francisco Railroad which now has its terminus at Vinita Indian territory is bound to Pierce City whence it will rapidly be pushed forward to Wichita where connection is made with the Wichita branch of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe road. Work on the main line of the latter is going forward at the rate of two miles daily and will reach the Rio Grande in forty five days. The Southern Pacific is rapidly pushing eastward and work is being vigorously prosecuted on the third line which terminates at Guaymas ... part of the road from Guaymas to ... being under contract and work ... commenced eastward forthwith.

Women at the Boston Election.

BOSTON, Dec 10—The city election is bringing out a full vote. The various tickets are being scratched extensively. A novel feature of the election is the presence of women at the polls, where they were courteously treated. A majority of the women registered have voted. The polling places were never so quiet and orderly as to-day.

Still He Goes

LOGANSPORT, Ind, Dec 10—The reception to-day to General Grant and party en route to Indianapolis was a complete success. Arrangements had been made for him to tarry an hour or two here and citizens and strangers numbering many thousand welcomed him with every conceivable patriotic demonstration.

A New Mineral Discovery.

DENVER, Col, Dec 9—A dispatch from ... reports the discovery of Uranium in the Sacramento mining district. This mineral is found in Bohemia but never before in this country as far as known. The present discovery was made by H L Rice. The ore ... 60 per cent. of uranium worth $1000 a ...

Burned to Death.

ROCHESTER, Dec 10—The toll-gate house was burned this morning in which the keeper and infant child perished.

WASHINGTON CITY.

New Secretary.

WASHINGTON, Dec 10—The president has sent to the senate the nomination of Alexander Ramsey, of Minnesota as secretary of war.

Confirmed.

The senate confirmed the nomination of Albert Johnson as surveyor general for Colorado.

The senate, without debate or discussion this afternoon confirmed the nomination of Secretary McCrary to be U S circuit judge for the eighth circuit.

Republican Senate Caucus.

WASHINGTON, Dec 10—The advisory committee of the caucus of republican senators consisting of Senators Morrill Conkling Hamlin, McMillan Booth, Garwood, Logan and Carpenter, have decided to recommend that the party in the senate commit itself to a policy of nonaction in regard to any and all legislation affecting the currency whether gold, greenbacks or silver during the present session. The committee are unanimous with the exception of Morrill who will recommend that greenbacks be divested of their legal tender power and that some provision be made for their retirement.

Fort and the President.

Representative Fort had another interview with the president yesterday in relation to the latter's recommendation concerning greenbacks and General Fort's adverse resolution now pending before the house committee on banking and currency. Particular reference was made to the apparently conflicting statements published in regard to the former interview and the president assured Mr. Fort that there was really no essential difference between them in the understanding of the purport of the interview and that although he adhered to the financial recommendations in his message, and was responsible for them and still believes in them, he would nevertheless not feel aggrieved by Gen Fort's continuing to press the resolution in question nor by the republicans adopting it if the party disagreed with him.

Blaine Interviewed

WASHINGTON Dec 10—Senator Blaine in an interview yesterday said he would be compelled to vote against Sherman's recommendation that the legal tender clause be stricken from the greenbacks as he thought it would work a great injustice to the majority of the people of the country. He thought it best to have each bank in the country redeem in gold as soon as there was a sufficient accumulation of it. He would let the legal tender notes alone for the present rather than provoke an angry financial excitement at the present time when the country is awakening from its business lethargy.

Uncle Sam will Take Care of the Utes

WASHINGTON, Dec 10—A cabinet meeting to-day authorized the secretary of the interior to notify General Hatch to receive the Indians engaged in the White river massacre with an assurance that they will be granted an impartial trial outside of Colorado and New Mexico.

THE SOUTH RECEIVES

Gen Grant Received in Louisville the Gateway of the South—Speeches of Welcome by the Mayor and the Governor, Etc

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN

LOUISVILLE Ky Dec 10—Eighteen hours rain has put the streets in bad condition but did not deter crowds of people from lining the route of the Grant procession which started promptly at 2 o clock from the depot amid loud cheers and roars of artillery. It was quite imposing and the military features were very generally admired. The route to the grand stand in front of the courthouse was profusely decorated. After reaching the stand, where thousands of people were congregated Mayor Baxter introduced General Grant as follows:

Fellow Citizens: We are pleased and gratified to welcome to day to our city one of the most distinguished men of our age. After filling the highest civil and military offices known to our laws with honor and fidelity to himself and the country retiring from the office and becoming a private citizen he made a tour of foreign lands where he was received by crowned heads and people as no American had ever been before. This was because he was an American citizen and had held with credit to himself and country the highest offices in our land. On his return to the United States and since he first put foot on the Pacific shore there has been one grand ovation given him by every city town and hamlet that he has visited up to the present time. Yea he has received genuine and heartfelt welcome from all people without regard to party or past issues. Now Gen Grant here at the gateway of the south, in the metropolis of Kentucky, we welcome you not only as Kentuckians but as American citizens, loving our country its constitution and its laws. Fellow citizens I have the pleasure of introducing you to our honored guest Gen Grant.

Governor Blackburn then extended a welcome on behalf of the state:

General Grant—Your visit to our state and this city is the occasion of much gratification to our people. I regret that from the nature of your previous engagements you will not be permitted to visit those portions of the state of which we Kentuckians feel so proud. Were you enabled to do so I feel assured that you would concur in the opinion of other distinguished travelers who have proclaimed it the Eden of the world. I indulge the hope however that on some future occasion when your time will be more at your disposal you will again honor us with a visit. In such event I promise you in advance a most cordial welcome. We make no pretense General to vie with the imposing and gorgeous receptions that greeted you in almost every nation and clime on your brilliant tour around the world. We have been gratified to recognize the honor paid you as a soldier, and one who has already filled full a page in your country's history and to know that you have achieved those whilst nurtured under the dome of the temple of liberty constructed by and cemented with the blood of our revolutionary sires. In a republic like ours it is but natural that the entire population should share in the success and triumphs of any one of her citizens and now General, in conclusion allow me as the chief executive of this state to extend to you a hearty welcome to the soil of Kentucky.

General Grant's response was brief and in substance the same as previous utterances. The procession then marched to the Louisville hotel where General Grant received during the afternoon the various bodies and organizations. At 5 o clock he will dine with Henry Watterson and have a private reception. The city will be illuminated.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Russian News

BERLIN Dec 10—Intelligence from St Petersburg says that another number of the new revolutionary journal entitled The Will of the People has been distributed in St Petersburg and other parts of Russia. This number was printed subsequent to the recent court martial and contains comments on the trial of Nihilist Mclsky.

The Novoe Vremya of St Petersburg states that the governor of that city has ordered every householder to display a red lamp before his door nightly, bearing the number of his house.

A well informed St Petersburg correspondent of the National Zeitung says he thinks the Russian imperial council, which was to have been held yesterday under the presidency of the emperor was summoned not so much to consider the question of peace or war as how best to retire from the present diplomatic attitude of aggression. A new war would produce an explosion calculated to shatter the whole organism of the state. The last war proved that foreign enterprises do not remove the peril involved in the passive opposition of society to the present system of the government. The peril is greater than the desperate conspiracies of the nihilists.

Another Flood in Hungary

PESTH Dec 10—The destruction of the dams of nearly all the principal rivers in Hungary and Transylvania and terrible inundations are again filling the public mind with anxiety. But for the intense cold ranging from 15° to 20° Reaumur Grosse Vardein and several villages around the city would have shared the fate of Szegedin. Temesvar Arada and several towns in Transylvania were partly inundated on Monday and in Grosse Vardein a great number of houses fell in. So suddenly came the flood that hardly any preventive measures had been taken. Great damage to property is reported, but no loss of life. A continuance of frost alone can prevent the most serious disaster.

Further Instructions

ROME Dec 10—Cardinal Nina the papal secretary of state writes to the papal nuncio at Brussels that the holy see has used all its efforts in the past to avoid a conflict and that further ventures are inconsistent with the dignity of the holy see. Cardinal Nina instructs the papal nuncio to return to Rome at once if the Belgian government recalls its ambassador.

Pending the discussion the morning hour expired and the senate went into executive session. When the doors were reopened the senate adjourned.

House

Pound introduced a joint resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution providing that after the 4th of March 1885 the president and vice president shall hold office for six years and shall be ineligible for more than one term consecutively and that members of congress shall be elected for three years. Referred.

The speaker then called the states for bills for reference.

By Wood—To amend the laws relating to internal revenue. It proposed to draw back in all manufactured tobacco of taxes paid beyond the rate of 16 cents per pound prior to the 1st of May 1879. This bill is introduced by request; also exempting from import duty classical antiquities and ancient coins and medals; also relating to the treaty making power. It declares that while the treaty making power is confirmed as confined to the president and senate two-third concurring such authority does not extend to treaties concerning the revenue or required appropriation of money to execute them but that in all such cases the consent of the law making power of the government is required which includes the house of representatives.

Myers introduced a bill to retire the national bank circulation and substitute U S treasury notes therefor.

The following joint resolution in regard to Irish affairs was introduced by Frost and referred:

WHEREAS It appears that the people of Ireland are seriously threatened with the horrors of famine and

WHEREAS The destitution and suffering that are now prevailing and that are likely to increase are in a great measure due to the system of land tenure which obtains in that unfortunate country therefore

Resolved etc That congress views with the most earnest and heartfelt sympathy the efforts now being made by patriotic Irishmen to ameliorate the condition of their beloved country and extends to the Irish people its sincere wish for their success in their endeavors to obtain for themselves and their posterity the inestimable boon of equal rights of self government.

By Gillet of Iowa

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives—First that we cordially sympathize with the people of Ireland in their present alarming condition from threatened famine and in their efforts to obtain relief from the oppressive landlords system. Second—That we request the president of the United States to communicate to Her Majesty's government our hope that some just arrangement may be early made by which the Irish peasants may become owners of the soil they cultivate.

Newbury introduced bills to authorize the issue of $30 000 000 of gold certificates and to establish a redemption fund therefor also to authorize the issue of $20 000 000 in silver certificates and to establish a redemption fund therefor.

Jones of Texas introduced a bill to repeal the act for the resumption of specie payments.

Price of Iowa introduced a bill requiring reserves of National banks to be kept in gold and silver coins of the United States, also a bill in relation to bank deposits.

Belford introduced a bill for a commission to negotiate with the Indians for extinguishment of their title to the Ute reservation.

Blount on behalf of the appropriation committee stated that the committee had expected to report and to have passed by the 17th of December the pension fortification and military academy bill and he offered an amendment that the recess commence on the 19th. Yeas and nays were ordered on this amendment.

Senate

WASHINGTON Dec 10

A resolution was adopted calling on the secretary of the treasury for information as to the effect upon the revenue and upon consumers of the repeal of duty on tea and coffee in 1872.

The vice-president presented the recommendation of the secretary of the treasury for $340 000 appropriation to allow work on the new war state and navy buildings to proceed. Referred.

A bill was introduced by Davis (Ill) to authorize the erection of a statue in honor of Chief Justice John Marshall.

By Hereford—To reimburse citizens of West Virginia for services rendered the United States during the war.

Cockrell offered a resolution that the committee on claims be instructed to consider the expediency of establishing a permanent tribunal which shall have jurisdiction of matters ordinarily referred to said committee. Adopted.

Ingalls' bill for the central branch of the U P R R was indefinitely postponed.

Davis of West Virginia introduced a resolution calling on the secretary of the treasury for a statement of private claims growing out of the late war paid since March 1st 1861. Adopted.

The house concurrent resolution was adopted by a vote of 76 to 31 to adjourn from Dec 19th till Jan 6th.

After a short executive session adjourned.

House

Burrows introduced a joint resolution providing for a constitutional amendment as follows:

Sec 1 Polygamy shall not exist within the limits of the United States or any place subject to their jurisdiction.

Sec 2 Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

Gillette introduced a bill establishing a government for the District of Columbia.

The consideration of the political assessments bill was deferred till January 7th.

Waite, from the committee on commerce reported a bill amending the revised statutes to allow foreign vessels to unload at any port of delivery after due entry thereat.

Conger opposed the bill as detrimental to the trade of the great lakes.

The bill then went over.

After long discussion over the bill fixing salary of supreme court reporter it was fixed at $4000 without perquisites.

White moved that minority opinions of supreme court be not published. Lost only two voting for it.

The bill for publication of the supreme court reports passed. Adjourned.

The Significance of the Demonstration of Utes before the Commission—Ouray's Motives Understood, Etc

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN

DENVER Dec 9—A special to the Denver Tribune from Los Pinos dated the 7th says that to-day's developments prove that the casting of his knife upon the floor by Colorow expressed his vote for war but the fact of the other Indians retaining their knives overpowered his vote. It was noticed that as soon as it was perceived that no other Indians wished to follow the example of Colorow two Utes arose from their seats in the council room and went out, giving signs and communicating the result of the talking to the Indians outside who instantly mounted their horses and rode away. A Row which Ended Fatally

Last Sunday evening two Frenchmen Henry Vienne and Frank La Pau were engaged in a difficulty in the saloon of Hotel de France on Pacific street and adjourned to the sidewalk to settle it. La Pau struck Vienne knocking him over. A team of horses stood at the edge of the sidewalk and Vienne in falling struck the near horse in the flank and fell between his legs. The animal kicked him in the side inflicting severe internal injuries. His dead body was found in his room at the hotel yesterday morning. La Pau was arrested on a charge of manslaughter.

A Sad Suicide

Miss Hattie Lucas residing with her mother at 114 Seventeenth street Oakland committed suicide yesterday afternoon by shooting herself. The young lady was highly esteemed. She wrote a letter to her mother informing her that for some time she had entertained a dread of insanity and that she had dreamed of being in the asylum. She sat in an arm chair and placed the pistol to her breast. The ball penetrated her heart.

The Old Story—Too Many Stocks

SAN FRANCISCO Dec 9—Fleischman & Sichel attribute their business embarrassment and assignment to the speculations of their book keeper Ernest Loewenberg who has been missing for two or three days. He has been with them some ten years and was fully trusted. They are unable as yet to state the amount of which he has robbed them but say that their liabilities are about $60 000 and assets $30 000 to $35 000 and that Loewenberg has undoubtedly gotten away with the balance against them. His defalcation is attributed to stocks and fast living. Search is now being made for him.

Failure of Lucky Baldwin Denied

For several days rumors have been rife that Lucky Baldwin had failed. There seems on careful inquiry to be no ground whatever for the report. It probably arose from the fact that a sale of real estate on Market street made by him some time ago to Glazier & Co has been put on record within a few days giving the impression that he was making further transfers.

San Francisco will Sympathize.

The executive committee of the various Irish societies met this evening and resolved to hold a mass meeting at Union Hall Dec 18th, for the purpose of taking steps for the relief of the distress in Ireland. Archbishop Alemany endorses the project and will be present. It is intimated that Lt Governor Johnson will preside.

Not Wisely, but Too Well

VIRGINIA Dec 9—Julia Hinds aged about twenty years died at 11 o'clock this morning at the C & C boarding house North I street under circumstances which have aroused suspicions of poisoning or attempted abortion. In another room wrapped in dirty female underclothing and squeezed into a washstand drawer was found a dead body which Miss Halon keeper of the house said belonged to Miss Hinds. The reputed father of the child is a man named Rafferty who was for a long time intimate with Miss Hinds, but who left for Australia last August. The coroner is investigating the case.

Form of certificates and full particulars in premium list which will be ready for distribution about Jan 20th. Premiums on fruits and vegetables were changed so as to include all early varieties and special premiums offered for late keeping fruits and vegetables.

Premiums of $15 $10 and $5 were offered for best 5 shots string measure 200 yards off hand with open sighted guns.

Premiums for base ball clubs of $50 for 1st $30 [illegible] were also offered.

Entrance fee in ladies and children's department was reduced from 20 to 10 per cent.

Prices of admission for ladies per day [illegible] season, $1. Girls 15 and under and boys [illegible] under free. The charge for boys 8 years of age being stricken out. A photograph season ticket for males 15 and over was adopted but near the close of the meeting the vote was reconsidered and the matter left with the executive committee.

George Downing of Marion county was elected chief marshal and Alfred Luelling of Clackamas county as marshal of the pavilion. A committee of ten ladies was appointed to decorate the pavilion and arrange articles for exhibition.

Division 8—Fine arts—was materially changed and premiums largely increased.

The secretary was ordered to procure for the life members and members of the board suitable metallic badges for use at the annual fairs the same to be worn by members of the board and surrendered at the close of each annual fair. Those for life members to be sold at cost and to be substituted for tickets. All life members wearing them to pass in and out at the gates without checks or tickets.

A loan of any sum from $7000 to $12 000 or so much as might be necessary to redeem all outstanding warrants of the society, was tendered the board at 10 per cent per annum coupled with a proviso by which some $550 or $600 could have been cleared for the society, through its acceptance but the board declined the offer after a short discussion for the reasons: 1st That those who had sold their warrants did so expecting they would not be paid under 12 months or at Fair Oct 1880. 2d Because a member of the board of 1879 had purchased more or less of said warrants at a discount and 3d Because deception would be charged by those who suffered loss by the sale of their warrants. If no warrants had been sold the offer would have been accepted.

Superintendents were elected for all divisions and classes. The reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and after an examination by the executive committee Messrs. Wm Galloway of Yamhill county Henry Miller of Multnomah county and Robert Mays of Wasco county who reported on the second as follows: As far as our limited time would permit we have examined the books and accounts of the secretary and treasurer with a comparison of the receipts and expenditures, and find the duties of those officers faithfully performed.

Following is a summary of the secretary's report:

A resolution prohibiting the issuing of any license at fair of 1880 for the sale of lager beer was passed by a strong vote after a long discussion. In order that the general public may understand the reasons other than those of a moral nature which induced this act on for the protection of the society on the part of the managers it has been thought best to make a statement. No license for the sale of intoxicating drinks other than lager beer was ever given by the society though they have several times refused from $1000 to $1500 for the privilege. Under the present statute the society can grant no exclusive privileges nor is there any law to enforce its rights, or compel an observance of its rules in such way as to make them immediately effective. The abuse of the lager beer license in the past two years every officer of the society fully understands and it has at last come to be an intolerable nuisance as well as a matter of gross injustice to those who have paid their license promptly. The society has for years suffered from evils it has been powerless to prevent and has determined that at least until a law can be enacted which will afford it suitable protection, no license for lager beer shall be granted nor shall any drinks of an intoxicating character be sold on the grounds. A committee was appointed to prepare—with the advice and counsel of the best legal authority—a bill for presentation at the session of the legislature of 1880 giving ample protection to the society in the enforcement of all its rules and regulations. If the Hon Hendrick B Wright and his committee are still engaged in that fruitless hunt after Depression it might be profitable for them to start in on an investigation of the prospects of the democratic party.

THURSDAY MORNING DEC 11 1879

WHAT IS DUE TO THE COURTS

The importance of a pure judiciary in the American system of government ought never to be overlooked by the people. Judicial sanction is the highest authority which can be given to any act, and let once fall into disrespect there would be but little security for the other branches of the government or for the rights of the people. Those who have occupied the highest places in this department in the United States have generally been men of learning and integrity, and many more mistakes have occurred in the making of the laws than in the administration of them. Judges have been for the most part honest, and though exceptions have from time to time been found, there is but little cause to fear that any great harm will ever result to the nation on account of corruption of the bench. Men generally regard it as the one place where wisdom and right conduct ought to preside, and where ignorance and corruption should have no place. It is considered as the real bulwark of the constitution and the palladium of our liberties. So universal is this respect for the courts of the land that many people regard them as above criticism, and denounce attempts to influence them even in matters of public interest as unsafe and unwarranted. And he who forestalls the judgment of a court is regarded by many as always doing so from a selfish motive. Often this is the case, but there are times when he who regards the law in which is the safety of the people even as above the courts is justified in giving public expression to correct expositions of the law the construction of which is to be given in a particular case. In such events courts which are composed of men fallible as all men are cannot claim exception from the rule which applies in other matters, and all attempts to prevent an honest expression of opinion upon questions of vital public importance by the claim that it is trying cases out of court will not avail. If men are forbidden the use of the press to discuss these questions they will do so on the streets and in their houses. This criticism should not be allowed, however, to go beyond the truth, and no man ought to be permitted to make it who cannot give a reason to the satisfaction of the public why the law should be construed according to the views to which he holds. To say that a law is a bad law is not regarded as at all a matter of offense, then how can it be so regarded to allege that the law's construction by a court in a certain way is bad? Notwithstanding the general high character of our courts and the respect which is due to them, they are not more properly exempt from a candid and honest review of their acts than are other officials in the discharge of their duties, the faithful performance of which are matters of public interest and importance. Such criticisms, made from the standpoint of a desire to promote the public good, ought not to be regarded as a forestallment of the court, but as incentive to the utmost diligence in finding out and administering the "clean law." Proper discussion of legal subjects will not tend to produce corruption in the events, but will rather promote the purity and integrity of the whole judicial system. Had not the press of California denounced the corruptions which the Standard says existed on the bench in that state, is it not probable that that corruption would have been continued indefinitely? We entertain a very high regard for the integrity of the courts of our own state, but as a journalist, speaking for the many, we could not forego the right to criticise them when they go wrong. Honor is due them in the past for protecting the right and applying the remedies to wrong, and we have said this much because a contemporary appears desirous of making it appear of as much importance that our courts be exempt from the expression of suspicion as that should really be above it.

GOVERNMENT FINANCES

The report of the treasury department submitted to congress last week is calling forth a very general discussion of financial affairs by the press of the country. One class at least is most effectually set back by the figures of the report, and that is the class who have persisted hitherto that resumption would prove a failure, that it would not be maintained. An exchange summarizes the cash statement, and compares it with Jan 1 1879 thus:

	Nov 1 1879.	Jan. 1 1879
Gold coin	$171,517 713	$135 382 639
Standard silver dollars	32,322 634	16 697 388
Fractional silver coin	17 755,186	15 471 205
Silver bullion	3 537,224
Gold certificates	218,400	391,420
Silver certificates	3,831,479	2,083 770
United States notes	37 522,567	69,582,505
National Bank notes	3,461 907	8 467,142
National Bank gold notes	196 200	1 7 0
Fractional currency	71 014	78 738
Nickel and minor coin	1 473 264	1 393 5 6
One-year notes, &c	255	[illegible]8 567

It is observable that during ten months when the public was at liberty to withdraw gold from the treasury in place of greenbacks, or vice versa, the gold balance has increased over $36,000,000. So too with silver. While the government has coined about 20 000 000 silver dollars, it has only got $5,000 000 of them into circulation, and now holds $15 000 000 more than at the opening of the year, while its stock of fractional currency has increased three to four millions. In the strongest contrast to this showing the withdrawals of legal tender notes have been over $32 000 000 in addition to $5 000 000 national bank notes. The result of the ten months operations is that the people have withdrawn $37 000 000 of paper currency from the treasury and left in its place an increase of $55 000 000 in coin.

Another important point is developed by the above statement. The total cash in the treasury is shown to be $270 000,000. Of this $68 000,000 is held for special accounts, so that the idle balance is $202 000 000. All the experience and precedents of financial history indicate that $100,000 000 of coin is more than an ample reserve against $346 000 000 of legal tender currency. There is then $102 000 000 in the treasury which should at once be applied to the purchase of bonds for the sinking fund. The late movement of the treasurer is a correct one. It should be extended however, until both the cash in the treasury and the principal of the bonded debt are decreased by $100 000 000, with a resulting economy of $5 000 000 to $6 000 000 in interest.

The excitement in Ireland does not abate. More indignation meetings have been called, inflammatory appeals issued, and it will require the utmost vigilance to prevent an outbreak. Doubts are expressed as to the wisdom of the government in arresting those who have spoken and written so freely in defense of the oppressed tenants, and it is asserted by some of the press that the charges of sedition cannot be sustained. All the leaders have been under surveillance for weeks, a [illegible] having been employed [illegible] and [illegible] meetings and report to the authorities what has been said. The tenants have nothing to gain by precipitating an outbreak, as they would fare badly in a conflict with [illegible]. Matters seem to [illegible] and further news from [illegible] may be looked for with increasing interest.

Says the Chicago Tribune: In unsuspected humor born of profound stupidity one may always count upon English writers to furnish the most brilliant examples. Among these the London Examiner seems to be entitled to the laurel. It says that Gen. Grant's candidacy is urged upon the republicans especially by secretary Evarts and men of that lass, but that the republicans hesitate because it is generally understood that Grant's nomination would be the signal for an alliance between the democrats and all the other minor parties for the counter nomination of one whose candidature it is believed by many would sweep all before it—the nomination of Victoria Woodhull. A good many reasons have been given heretofore why Grant should not be nominated, but it must be confessed that English authority has found a new one.

The people are beginning to look about with a good deal of interest for candidates for judicial honors at the election next year. Honors may well be called for the emoluments are so small that but few men of the requisite ability can be induced to take the office of district or supreme judge in Oregon for the pecuniary reward which the law gives them. While we are in favor of low salaries for all offices there is a false economy which allows pay only for third or fourth rate talent in a first rate position. Any reasonably good lawyer can make more than the salary allowed the district and supreme judges in this state and have none of the responsibilities which devolve upon the judiciary, and no one will admit that less than reasonably good lawyers should be chosen to preside in our higher courts.

The Albany Argus publishes a table of official majorities of all the counties in New York and Kings—with the explanation that in the latter named county in some reports the republican vote is one thousand better than represented in the general returns. The corrected majorities are given as follows:

Alonzo B Cornell governor	38[illegible]
George G Hoskins lieut governor	[illegible]1 150
Joseph B Carr secretary of state	[illegible]152
James W Wadsworth comptroller	6 613
Nathan D Wendell treasurer	3 2 4
Hamilton Ward attorney general	7 [illegible]3

The legislature stands: Senate—Republicans 25, democrats 7; Assembly—Republicans 92, democrats 36. The republican majority on joint ballot is 74.

Pennsylvania is again placed under the disagreeable necessity of hanging a woman. Mrs. Catherine Zell has been convicted of murder in the first degree, she having poisoned an old lady by the name of Kiehl. The murder was committed at the instance of a man named Wynkoop, who claimed that the old lady had left him all her property by will. As he was not related to her and there was no reason why she should have thus favored him, suspicion was aroused and the fact developed that Mrs Zell had given the deceased enough arsenic to kill half a dozen persons. The man is yet to be tried.

A prominent feature of the reunion of the Army of the Cumberland last week has been the numerous and emphatic expressions in vindication of Gen. Robert Anderson, the defender of Fort Sumter. These declarations coming from soldiers of the late war in defense of their dead comrade are honorable to their authors in the highest degree and will effectually put to rest all question as to Gen. Anderson's fidelity to the union recently started by a magazine writer.

The Hon. Fred Hassaurek, editor of the Cincinnati Volksblatt and for some years past an active democrat, has pronounced in favor of John Sherman for president. He says the democratic party is hopelessly demoralized and as the choice seems to be reduced to Grant or Sherman he is for the latter.

Official returns from Wisconsin show a majority of 24 404 for Smith, republican, for governor and 28 061 for Guenther for secretary of state, a republican gain of 16 000 and the largest majority ever given any candidate in the state.

Brooklyn, N. Y., the "city of churches," is about to get a reputation also as the "city of the big debt." She now owes forty two million dollars and sees no way to pay any considerable portion.

The Richmond (Va.) State says that "All these professions from the south of a desire for Grant on the part of the democrats are hypocritical." No doubt of it.

The Daily Oregonian.

THURSDAY MORNING, DEC. 11, 1879.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—12:30 A. M.—For Pacific coast regions clear or partly cloudy weather with light rains or snow in the North Pacific constellations.

CITY.

WORTHY OF ASSISTANCE.—The attention of charity givers is directed to the case of Mrs. Depart, the unfortunate woman whose husband was scalded to death in one of his soap vats some time since. A rascal by the name of Duval assumed to settle the estate, but decamped, taking all the money and leaving the debts to be paid. Since that event the woman has been making strenuous efforts to earn a living for herself and three children by washing and whatever menial service falls in her way. It is represented that because of no place to dry clothes she has to sit up nights to dry the day's washing at the fire, and that a little aid towards building a shed would make her altogether less dependent. She is a French woman, and although she speaks very imperfectly, thus much is the burden of her complaint. Will not the French consul or some charitable person undertake to represent her case to the kind-hearted of this city? A very little effort will put her in position the better to sustain herself from beggary. She resides on the corner of Seventh and Clay streets.

TEMPERANCE MATTERS.—The Vindicator: "A full house greeted the speakers again last Monday evening at the regular meeting of the East Portland Open Temperance Society. A large number of the young men were compelled to stand for lack of seating room, and the surroundings presented the query to many whether a larger and more convenient place of meeting could not be found. Forty-two signatures were added to the roll, which swelled the total membership to 479. The workers are in earnest and success seems already won, even now."

A GOOD REGATTA COURSE.—A correspondent of The Olympian, a San Francisco publication devoted to "sports, literature and the arts," who has recently visited Portland, among many other mentions, says: "Just one item I must find room for, and it is for the special benefit of the St. George and Pioneer Rowing clubs. Let either of them send up a crew to Portland, and they will find the grandest regatta course that ever feasted the eyes of an oarsman."

ACCEPTS THE CHALLENGE.—For several days past the friends of W. F. Lowery, a billiard expert from San Francisco, and of Josh L. Davies of this city, have been arranging for a match between these gentlemen. Last night Mr. Lowery challenged Mr. Davies, and the latter accepts in a card this morning. The game will be 3 ball carom, 300 points on a 5 x 10 table. The time and place for the match will probably be fixed in a day or two.

LECTURER'S APPOINTMENTS.—E. W. [illegible], lecturer for the I. O. G. T., will speak at Fairview, near Sandy, on Friday, [illegible]; Damascus, Dec. 13th; Marshfield, [illegible] and probably at East Portland on [illegible] the 16th inst. We understand that an effort will be made to organize a lodge of Good Templars in the latter place next [illegible] which we hope will be successful.

MISS TUTTLE'S ENTERTAINMENT.—Miss Tuttle's dramatic and musical recitals promise to be largely and fashionably attended on Monday evening. The programme is composed of the choicest literary and musical gems. The sale of reserve seats begins this morning at D. W. Prentice's music store, and those wishing desirable seats ought to make timely application.

FROM ASTORIA.—The following dispatches were received from Astoria yesterday: 2 P.M. State of California arrived down at 1 P. M.; ships Duncan Coupland, Cockermouth and Carnarvon Castle crossed out for United Kingdom; 4 P. M., State of California passed out at 3 P. M. Elder left for Portland at 3:30 P. M. Rainy; wind light south.

WELL SCARED.—Last evening Special Officer [illegible] Saunders arrested three lads who were [illegible] in a small shed near the corner of [illegible] and First streets. He escorted these to the city jail, where they were reprimanded sharply by Chief Lappeus and then released. Three worse scared boys are seldom seen.

MONEY ORDERS.—Seventy-eight money orders were issued yesterday—the largest day's business since the money order business was established. The business of the office during [illegible] was good; many persons send money orders eastward.

CONGRATULATORY.—Several friends telegraphed congratulations to Mr. Nathan May, a well known commercial traveler, who was married in San Francisco last evening to Miss [illegible] Adler, of that city.

[illegible] ELDER.—The steamer Elder arrived [illegible] yesterday at 2:30 P. M. She sailed for Portland during the afternoon. Up to the hour of going to press the steamer had not put in an appearance.

[illegible]—The City Rifles gave a very pleasant hop at the Armory Hall last evening. [illegible] was well attended and proved quite enjoyable.

RELIGIOUS NOTES.

[From the Advocate.]

The sociable at the North Portland M. E. [illegible] Chapel, on last Friday evening, was a success. The room was well filled, and the supper and ice cream table well patronized.

Revival meetings in the M. E. church at [illegible], W. T., have been in progress for two weeks with glorious success—as to conversions and additions to the church. These meetings will probably continue until February.

Revival meetings are now in progress in the M. E. church at Vancouver. Some [illegible] persons are seeking religion, and several have joined the church. The pastor and [illegible] are much encouraged, and hope [illegible] revival.

The [illegible] quarterly meeting at East Portland was a very profitable one. P. E. [illegible] endeared himself to the people very much. He is the right man in the place. [illegible] meeting is progressing very well. [illegible] conversions. Temperance matters still encouraging; 506 pledges have been taken in five months.

A CARD.

As there appears to be some misunderstanding with regard to the charity ball that is to be given on the 17th inst., the ladies of the [illegible] society desire to state that they have decided to defer theirs until the latter part of [illegible]. They were not aware that the [illegible] connected with the orphanage had so far progressed in their preparations until after their notice had been given. They therefore cheerfully withdraw for the present. Due notice will be given as the time approaches.

M. H. HOLBROOK,
President.

Portland, Dec. 10.

NO INTENTION OF WITHDRAWING.—Mr. C. P. [illegible], of the New Zealand Insurance Co., is at present visiting in Portland, and assures us that, rumors to the contrary notwithstanding, this company has no intention of withdrawing from Oregon and Washington Territory. Its business in these districts is in a prosperous condition and steadily increasing. The company is, moreover, well satisfied with the present and future prospects and [illegible] of prosperity in Oregon and Washington Territory. A withdrawal has been made for the present from the interior towns of California on account of depression of general business, resulting from crop failures, political agitation, and other causes, though the company continues to do a large fire and marine business in San Francisco and vicinity. [illegible] insurance company doing a large country business in California has made money during the past two years.

When all the world is hushed and still,
And night approaches noon,
You lie abed and, wondering, watch
The pale majestic moon.
But quickly can the magic spell
Be broken by the baby's yell.

GEN. JEFFERSON C. DAVIS.

An exchange in speaking of the late Jeff. C. Davis, whose death has been announced by telegraph, in this paper, says:

General Jefferson C. Davis, who died of pneumonia at Chicago, was a gallant and able soldier. He was born in Clark county, Indiana, March 2, 1828. He graduated at West Point, having been appointed to the cadetship by Thomas J. Henly, then a member of congress from Indiana, and subsequently a leading politician of that state. He served in Col. Lane's Indiana regiment during the Mexican war, and was promoted for gallant conduct at Buena Vista. In 1861 he was one of the garrison of Fort Sumter during the bombardment. In May, 1861, he was promoted to captain and given leave of absence to raise the 22d Indiana volunteers. He was made a brigadier general of volunteers for gallantry at Milford, Mo. In the desperate and long contested battle at Pea Ridge he commanded a division of western soldiers. The confederate General Ben McCulloch was killed in front of Davis' division. Gen. Davis subsequently participated in the battles of Murfreesboro, Chattanooga and Atlanta. He was brevetted major-general in 1865, and made colonel of the 23d infantry, July 28, 1866. About 1867 he for a time was stationed on this coast, and some time later, after the murder of General Canby by the Modocs, he was again sent to this department, being given command of the troops at the lava beds. He conducted the campaign with such energy and skill that the Indians were forced to surrender.

Gen. Davis, it will be remembered, had command of the military post at Sitka for some time. He was also commanding general of the department of the Columbia from the time of the death of Gen. Canby until the assignment of Gen. O. O. Howard to this department. During the time that Gen. Davis had command of this department—extending over a period of several months—his headquarters was in Portland. He was a quiet, dignified and unassuming gentleman in private life, and as true and brave a soldier as ever unsheathed a sword.

MILITARY NOTES.

The commanding officer, Camp Chelan, W. T., will send Private Andrew S. Reed, Company I, 2d infantry, with his arms and accoutrements, to report to his regimental commander at Fort Cœur d'Alene, I. T., for duty as clerk at regimental headquarters.

The verbal order of the department commander, directing the employment of James J. Louis as interpreter for Indian prisoners of war at Vancouver barracks, to be continued from the 30th of September to the 31st of October, inclusive, at the rate of one dollar per day, is hereby confirmed.

Upon the recommendation of the post commander, in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 1, general orders No. 42, series of 1875, war department, adjutant general's office, the bread ration for detachment of recruits now on duty at Vancouver barracks, is increased from 18 to 22 ounces until further orders.

THE POULTRY SHOW.

Quite a number of additions of fine fowls and pets were made yesterday. The attendance was good all day, the presence of many ladies being noticeable. Mr. W. G. Failing and Mr. B. Thomas, who are present nearly all the time, take great pains to give visitors all the information desired, and make it as pleasant for them as possible. The exhibition is open from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M. Ladies and children under 12 are admitted free. The following is a list of exhibits placed in the building yesterday:

W. S. Failing—Pair black breasted red games, trio of black breasted red games and trio of black Spanish.

W. W. Quinn—Two coops containing eight games, three of them old-fashioned, full blooded blues, three full blooded Japanese and two cross breeds.

C. P. Bacon has added a trio of fine black dockings, the only fowls of this variety shown.

Wm. Sherlock has added six duck-wing bantams and three boulders.

Frank Buchtel shows a pair of duck wing bantams and three black breasted game hens, and B. Bpachen five half Hamburgs.

THE LITTLE PETS.

Ray and Hal Green show a pair of beautiful ring doves, a trio of brown priest pigeons, and a pair of English pouters, latter pure white and said to be the handsomest pair on the coast.

Charles Rockfellow shows a chipmunk and a cage of white and pink mice, the latter delicately tinted and quite a pleasing novelty.

John LaChapelle shows two beautiful ring doves, Mrs. Bell a cage of eighteen canaries and W. S. Failing two white rabbits.

Joe Taylor shows two Australian magpies, one of which talks, sings and whistles, and is a whole show in himself.

A COSTLY MISTAKE.

Many persons suffer for years with pains and aches which they mistakenly call Rheumatism, but which are caused by a defective action of the Kidneys. No outward application will cure this, but the seat of the disease must be reached by internal remedies. The Oregon Kidney Tea has cured many such cases, and is the best, purest and simplest remedy known, being strictly vegetable, uncombined with hurtful drugs or mineral poisons.

WM. SCHEFFLER'S ST. HELENA

SANITARY, VACUUM DISTILLED GRAPE BRANDY AND GOOD OLD EDGE HILL WINES.

Mr Scheffler is sole proprietor of the principle known as the vacuum process of distilling, by which the fusil oils are left with the residue and not incorporated with the brandy, leaving it pure and free from all deleterious substances which does and must exist in all alcoholic liquors distilled by the usual process of boiling heat. California Physicians have pronounced their preference of it to all other. Doctor Cox, government revenue officer at Cincinnati, Ohio, says in his report, that after ten years' of close investigation he can safely say that very few, if any, pure wines or brandy are exported from the Old Continent to this. He has found none in his many analyses—that all are doctored before leaving France. The French Consul at Buenos Ayres writes home to his government that so much complaint is made there of the appearance of litharge and other dangerous drugs in all their French wines, that there is great danger of losing the trade of the Argentine States. Other proofs could be cited were it necessary, to prove the superiority of the best class of California wines and brandy. Orders from responsible parties, addressed to Wm. Scheffler, or Geo. H. Beach, St. Helena, Napa county, Cal., will receive prompt attention.

NEWS NOTES FROM SALEM.

[REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE TO THE OREGONIAN.]

SALEM, Dec. 10.

The governor has appointed Binger Hermann of Roseburg, as notary public for the ensuing two years.

Supreme court convenes in this city Monday, January 5, 1880, a number of cases having already been docketed.

The Merchants' Exchange Association of Portland, has filed articles of incorporation in the office of secretary of state.

Fidelity Lodge I. O. O. F., of Turner's, are making arrangements for the public installation of officers to take place on the forenoon of January 3, 1880.

A special term of the circuit court for this district will convene on Monday next for the purpose of trying the cases against the late democratic state administration.

Salem Lodge No. 4, A. F. and A. M. last evening elected the following officers for the ensuing year: M. N. Chapman, W. M.; A. H. Wilson, S. W.; W. T. Gray, J. W.; and F. D. McDowell, S.

The following is the list of the officers of the Shakesperian Club of this city: James Walton, president; William Waldo, vice president; C. B. Moores, secretary; and B. H. Bowman, treasurer.

Mrs. Westacott, the worthy consort of Louis Westacott, Esq., of this city, died at their home in South Salem, last night, a victim of that dread disease, consumption. She was a lady highly esteemed by all who knew her, and leaves a large family to mourn her loss.

The governor yesterday commuted the sentence of John Hackleson to expire at date. Hackleson was convicted of larceny in Multnomah county, and sentenced January 9, 1879, to one year imprisonment in the penitentiary. Reasons assigned: uniform good conduct, and waiving merit money.

Mr. and Mrs F. A. Smith, of this city, were called upon on Sunday last to lay beneath the sod all that remained mortal of their eldest daughter, Carrie, a young lady of many rare virtues, and one who had endeared herself to a large circle of friends, school mates and acquaintances, who sympathize deeply with the truly afflicted parents.

The governor has commuted the sentence of J. Simmons, a convict in the Oregon penitentiary, to expire Dec. 8, 1879, on account of having a family depending upon him for support, having shown evidence of reformation, returned stolen property to owner, and on petition of citizens of Marion county. Simmons was convicted June 10, 1878, in Marion county, of the crime of burglary and sentenced to three years' imprisonment.

In reply to the editorial inquiry in THE DAILY OREGONIAN of the 10th inst., as to who the James Clark is who has recently written a severe criticism on the management of the Oregon state penitentiary, which was published in the Salem Mercury, the following facts may shed some light: A convict bearing the same name was discharged from the penitentiary a short time since, his sentence having been commuted by Gov. Thayer to expire on the 27th of last month. Clark was convicted of burglary in Multnomah county, and sentenced March 23, 1879, to two years imprisonment in the penitentiary.

Pills are far behind this enterprising era. Nine-tenths of them are so hard that they pass through the bowels without dissolving. Try the great anti-constipative remedy, PFUNDER'S OREGON BLOOD PURIFIER.

THE DEATH-RATE OF

Our country is getting to be fearfully alarming, the average of life being lessened every year, without any reasonable cause, death resulting generally from the most insignificant origin. At this season of the year especially a cold is such a common thing that in the hurry of every day life we are apt to overlook the dangers attending it, and often find too late that a Fever or Lung trouble has set in. Thousands lose their lives in this way every winter, while had Boschee's German Syrup been taken a cure would have resulted and a large bill from a doctor been avoided. For all diseases of the Throat and Lungs Boschee's German Syrup has proven itself to be the greatest discovery of its kind in medicine. Every Druggist in this country will tell you of its wonderful effect. Over 950,000 bottles sold last year, without a single failure known.

Forewarned Forearmed.

Physicians and invalids use with confidence The Kaiser Celebrated German Elixir for Consumption and throat and lung diseases. It is rich in the medical properties of tar, wild cherry, etc. Is rendered perfectly harmless to the youngest child. This would have proved an Angel of Mercy in the households of those unhappy parents at Vallejo, Dixon, Beaver, Utah and numerous other places, whose children were slaughtered by quack medicine recommended by its owner to cure croup, possessing no properties calculated to cure it, but instead a deadly drug which has slain its thousands. Be sure you get only German Elixir. The genuine bears the Prussian coat of arms and the fac-simile signature of Dr. Kaiser. Samples at all drug stores. Large size 75 cents.

SUICIDE.

A distinguished Scientist once said: "No man with a strong, healthy stomach ever committed suicide, yet many suffer the torments of the damned with dyspepsia, when a single bottle of DR MINTIE'S ENGLISH DANDELION LIVER AND DYSPEPSIA PILLS will give relief, and, if persisted in, cure the worse case of this distressing trouble. This pill cures torpid liver, biliousness, sallow complexion, foul breath, sick headache, heartburn, pain in side and back, removes pimples from the face, regulates the bowels, is sugar-coated and guaranteed purely vegetable. It acts directly on the coating of the stomach and on the liver; is suited to any climate, wet or dry weather. Beware of imitations; genuine has cut of lion on outside wrapper. Price, 50 cents. Sold by all druggists. Hodge, Davis & Co., Portland, wholesale agents.

How to Save Money.

Instead of going to a doctor, if you have Bright's Disease, Diabetes, pain in back and loins, smarting, inflammation, calculi, brick-dust deposit, or any trouble of the kidneys or bladder, buy a bottle of DR. MINTIE'S NEPHRETICUM, the great Buchu Compound. It is the best prescription ever compounded for these troubles. Abrams & Carroll, Wholesale Druggists, say: "We regard Nephreticum as the best Kidney and Bladder Remedy in the market." Woodward, druggist, Portland, Oregon, says: "Everybody speaks highly of it." Chiles, druggist, Portland, says: "Sold lots of it; it always does the work." Many have been cured of obstinate kidney complaints after the doctors gave them up. Sold by all druggists. Price $1 25. Hodge, Davis & Co., Portland, Wholesale Agents.

Sir Astley Cooper's Vital Restorative.

The great English remedy—has made more cures of Nervous Debility, Seminal Weakness, Lost Manhood, nocturnal emissions, lassitude, inability for mental labor, despondency, and such diseases as are induced by youthful follies and excesses, than all other medicines combined.

It is not a stimulant nor excitant, is perfectly safe to take, is not a quack nostrum, and produces results that are wonderful.

Price, $3 a bottle. Four times the quantity, $10. Buy a bottle. It will not disappoint you. Hodge, Davis & Co., wholesale agents.

MAMMOTH CLEARANCE SALE

THE FEAST OF DEDICATION.

HOW THIS FEAST IS OBSERVED BY ISRAELITES—ITS ORIGIN.

PORTLAND, Dec. 10, 1879.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

As you so frequently correct misstatements in the Standard, we will trespass upon your kindness in calling attention to a garbled account of the ceremonies attending the "Feast of Dedication," which appeared in that journal this morning. The service commemorates the restoration of the Temple at Jerusalem to its holy purpose and cleanliness (after its long desecration by Antiochus) the result of the inspired heroism of the Maccabees, led by the lion hearted Judah. It was conducted at the Beth Israel synagogue of this city, in common with every synagogue beneath the skies, last evening. It was not an exceptional occurrence.

The pupils of the Sabbath school were especially invited to be present, and Rev. Mr. May addressed them, explaining very lucidly the reasons for celebrating the anniversary of an event so important to the Hebrew race. If there were any exercises in the school house they were entirely unconnected with the festival. Mr. Bories (mentioned in the article) is the teacher of Hebrew and not a "reverend," and neither the parents of the pupils nor their friends were invited there. The feast is marked simply by the ordinary evening ritual and the lighting of lights for eight nights in the homes of the people.

It is not a feast ordained by divine law and the manner of its observance may be traced to the following tradition: When the temple had been cleansed and the priests desired to light the Ner Tamid or perpetual lamp, they found that they had but one small bottle of the oil used for the purpose. It would require seven days to properly prepare a new supply. Some of the more pious among the people resolved to burn lights of common oil in their houses so that if the light in the Temple should be extinguished, these might be accepted as substitutes. Others seeing this, followed the example until lights were burning in every Jewish household. On the sixth day, the oil, which appeared to be only enough for one day, was still burning and with every evidence of being fully enough to last until the new oil was ready. The people accepted the fact as the result of divine interposition, and on the sixth, seventh and eighth day, when the new oil was delivered into the temple, they illuminated their households. Not a year since this time has been allowed to elapse without the burning of lights in their households by the people scattered to the four quarters of the earth.

In conclusion it is but justice to the teachers who devote their time and energy with so much grace and pleasure to the Sabbath school, to state that the list in the Standard is totally incorrect. We append the proper list: Rev. M. May, principal, Mrs. L. Hexter, Miss Sophia Durkheimer, Miss H. Danziger, Miss Gussie Selling, Miss G [illegible], Miss Bertha Kahn, Mr. H. Bories, Mr. B. Selling, Mr. S. Blumauer, Mr. F. R. Mellis, Mr. D. S. Cohen, Mr. T. W. Mellis, Mr. M. Horlack, Mr. Leon Kaufmann. Respectfully yours, VERACITY.

As the Irishman played the fiddle by "main strength," so many fancy the huge, drastic, cathartic pills operate. But this is a mistake, as can be proved by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets, which are sugar coated and little larger than mustard seeds, yet they are a positive and efficient cathartic, acting gently on the liver and stomach, aiding digestion, overcoming "biliousness," and permanently curing constipation. Wm. H. Manly, of Norfolk, Va., writes: "Your Pleasant Purgative Pellets give perfect satisfaction.

THURSDAY MORNING DEC 11 1879

DECISION IN THE U S CIRCUIT COURT FIELD DEADY J J

U S Circuit Court—District of Oregon

Wednesday Dec 10 1879

J [illegible] v H H Luse [illegible]

(1) [illegible] The occupation of a tract of land as a town site for the purposes of [illegible] trade which is afterwards abandoned does not impress upon the locality the character of a city or town site so that the same cannot be taken up and held under the donation act as unoccupied public land

(2) [illegible] TO AFFECT A PATENT. Equity does not have jurisdiction to affect a patent except upon the ground of an antecedent [illegible] and therefore a party who must have settled upon a tract of public land subsequent to the settlement and entry thereof by another who has received the patent for the same upon the ground that the settlement and entry of the patentee were illegal and void cannot maintain a suit to set aside such patent or charge the patentee as his trustee [illegible]

(3) QUESTIONS OF FACT DECISIONS OF THE LAND DEPARTMENT. Questions of fact decided in the land department are not subject to review by the courts except for fraud or mistake other than an error of judgment and where there has been a contest in such department between two claimants to be a settler upon a portion of the public land to cancel the entry of a prior settler upon the same land the decision therein precludes further inquiry by the parties to any question of fact which might properly have been made in such contest the same as if it had been actually so made and considered

(4) IDEM—QUESTION OF LAW.—Whether a settler under the donation act upon unsurveyed lands could commute his residence thereon under § 1 of the act of February 14 1853 and July 17 1854 by the payment of $1 25 an acre therefor is a question of law and therefore the decision of the land department thereon may be reviewed by this court upon the suit of a party having an equity in the premises prior to such entry but not otherwise except in a suit by the United States to cancel the patent issued upon such entry

BEFORE MR JUSTICE FIELD AND DEADY DISTRICT JUDGE

DEADY J, delivered the opinion of the court.

In the spring of 1877 H H Luse commenced actions at law in the circuit court for the county of Coos against a number of persons to recover the possession of certain lots in the town of Marshfield in said county the same being parts of lots 3 and 4 of section 26 in T 25 S., of R 13 W of the Wallamet meridian

Each of the defendants in these actions filed a complaint in equity in the nature of a cross bill under § 377 of the Or Civ Code against Luse to stay the proceedings therein and praying that he be enjoined from asserting any right or title to the premises or interfering with the plaintiffs in occupying and holding the same.

Under said § 377 the effect of this was to stay the proceedings in the actions at law until the final disposition of the suits in equity

On account of the disability of the judge the cases were removed by stipulation to the circuit court for the county of Marion In November 1878 they were removed by Luse to this court upon the grounds that he was a citizen of California and that the controversy therein arises under the donation and town site acts of the United States and were entered here on January 6 1879

By stipulation the evidence taken in this case was to be considered as taken in the others and on August 21 it was argued and submitted upon the understanding that the final determination therein should be followed in the other cases

The material facts in the case are as follows

On March 24, 1877 the land office at Roseburg issued a patent certificate No 1961 in favor of Wilkins Warwick, for a donation of 160 acres under the donation act of September 27, 1850, (9 Stat 497) upon a residence thereon from August 4, 1854, to March 10 1856 and the payment on September 16 1856 of $1 25 per acre under the acts of February 14 1853 (10 Stat 158) and of July 13 1854 (Id 300) amendatory of said donation act, in lieu of the remainder of the four years residence thereby required, the same being lots 3 and 4 of section 26, the N. ½ of the S. E. ¼ of section 27, all in T 25 S , of R. 13 W of the Wallamet meridian , upon which certificate a patent for said premises was, on May 6, 1876, issued to said Warwick, and the defendant Luse on and before the commencement of said actions at law, had by means of sufficient conveyances acquired all the interest of said Warwick in the premises. In 1869 proceedings were instituted in the local land office in the interest of the inhabitants of Marshfield, and with a view of entering the same for their benefit as a town site, to cancel and set aside Warwick's notification and entry upon the charge of "abandonment" The ground of this charge was that the commutation entry of September 16 1856, was void, the land being then unsurveyed, and therefore the failure to reside thereon, thenceforth, amounted to an abandonment

That office and the commissioner of the general land office decided the question against Warwick, holding that § 1 of the act of February 14. 1853 and of July 17, 1854, providing for the payment of $1 25 per acre in lieu of the last three year's residence upon the donation required by the act of September 27, 1850, did not apply to unsurveyed lands Upon an appeal to the secretary of the interior, that officer on May 29 1874 reversed such decision saying The language [of said § 1] is somewhat ambiguous but it is undoubtedly susceptible of a construction to include unsurveyed land, and such a construction seems to be in strict conformity with the spirit of the act and the objects intended to be accomplished by its passage The construction adopted is extremely technical and I think contrary to the policy of the act, which was a benevolent statute and as such had received in all adjudicated cases arising under it, an exceptionally liberal interpretation. (Stark v Starr 6 Wall 402 Silver v Ladd, 7 Wall. 219)

The secretary also held that the entry of Warwick being prima facie regular and valid the contestants, who had neither alleged nor claimed any prior interest in the land could not maintain a proceeding to set it aside

The present suit is sought to be maintained not only upon the ground passed upon in the land department, namely the abandonment by Warwick of his residence upon the premises before he had complied with the requirements of the law, but also upon the ground that the premises included in the patent to Warwick are a part of the town site of Marshfield, which was settled upon for the purposes of business and trade and not agriculture long prior to the date of the pretended settlement or occupation by Warwick and that relying upon this fact the plaintiff settled upon the lot in controversy expecting "that title thereto would be duly obtained in accordance" with the laws of the United States

Briefly it appears from the evidence that in March, 1854 Mr J C Tolman now surveyor general of this state went upon the ground with his family and marked out a claim of 320 acres to which he gave the name of Marshfield and built a double log house thereon with the intention of acquiring the same as a donation under the act of Sept 27 1850 and building a town thereon About August 1 Tolman removed to Jackson county where he settled upon 320 acres of the public land and acquired the title to the same under the donation act and never returned to Coos county When he left he made an arrangement with one A J Davis to hold the claim thereafter together—Davis procuring Warwick to hold the north end of the claim for him and one A J Gaskell the south end for Tolman

Just prior to leaving Tolman gave Captains Crosby and Williams who were in the bay with a vessel two lots on the marsh near the water on condition that they would build a store and warehouse thereon and occupy the same as a place of business During the summer they caused a small frame house to be erected there but never occupied or returned to the place On August 4 1854 Warwick went into the log house built by Tolman and resided there for over a year claiming to be a settler under the donation act during which time on March 10 1856 he filed a donation under the [illegible] for 160 acres including such dwelling house and on September 16 1856 per said Davis made proof of such residence and [illegible] and entered the same at $1 25 per acre under the donation act and § 1 of the acts of February 14 1853 and July 17 1854 [illegible] of 18[illegible] Warwick and Davis [illegible] and have not returned to it and at the same time James [illegible] by the [illegible] of Davis [illegible] the house built by [illegible] and Williams as a [illegible] Davis gave J [illegible] instructions to look after the claim and pay the taxes on it which he did for [illegible] years when Luse [illegible] the place as the agent of Davis and [illegible] year thereafter as the owner of the [illegible]

On June 10 18[illegible] [illegible] interest in the Marshfield claim to [illegible] who soon after took [illegible] the [illegible] as a [illegible] 1856 [illegible] Schofield [illegible] said [illegible] [illegible] the claim taken up by Tolman the smaller portion of which was upon the tract patented to Warwick and made plats [illegible] of which was the first attempt to lay off a town upon the premises

The first house built upon the Marshfield claim after the two built in 1854 was built [illegible] and occupied as a dwelling house by a man named Hamilton The next house was a saloon built in 1866 and now occupied by the plaintiff Soon after this in 186[illegible] a sawmill was built at Marshfield and people commenced to occupy the place as a town and at the commencement of these actions at law there were from [illegible] to [illegible] houses on the portion included in Warwick's donation

On October 24 1874 the town of Marshfield was duly incorporated with the following boundaries—commencing at a point [illegible] the ship channel of [illegible] the S E corner of lot [illegible] section [illegible] [illegible] west to the east line of section [illegible] of said township thence north [illegible] the east [illegible] the inside channel of Coos bay and thence [illegible] channel to the place of beginning [illegible] Laws [illegible] These boundaries include [illegible] involved in this litigation

In November 18[illegible] and before [illegible] incorporation of said town and [illegible] [illegible] Webster acting in behalf of the inhabitants of the place [illegible] townsite [illegible] [illegible] department at Washington [illegible] and money were [illegible] by the officers as a deposit [illegible] contest and were returned [illegible] Webster [illegible] same [illegible] the inhabitants of Marshfield [illegible] the land office [illegible] the same entry but the application was rejected on the ground that it was not open to entry

Upon this state of facts this suit cannot be maintained The place called Marshfield was not as a matter of fact [illegible] as a town site or settled upon for the purpose of business or trade prior to the survey of the same into lots and blocks in the fall of 18[illegible] and probably not until 186[illegible] and never within the meaning of the town site act of May 23 1844 (5 Stat [illegible]) and § 1 of the act of July 17 1854 10 Stat 305

The act of July 17 1854 supra first extended the town site act of May 23 1844 over Oregon and they are so far in pari materia and therefore should be construed as one Taken together they provide that thereafter a donation claim shall not be surveyed so as to include lands settled upon and occupied as a town site

But this settlement and occupation must have taken place before the settlement under the donation act and not been given up or abandoned If any number of people had settled upon the Marshfield claim in 1854 as a town site for the purposes of business or trade and thereafter and before the entry of the same had left the place—abandoned it—the land would not thereby have had the character or quality of a town site [illegible] impressed upon it so that it could not afterwards be taken and held under the donation act On the contrary so soon as it was not occupied as a town site it was abandoned and was open to settlement under the donation act as though it had never been occupied for any purpose Townsley v Portland 1 Deady 14 Mr Tolman's interest in the land as a town site or otherwise ceased with his occupation of it on August 1 1854 and the next comer took it unaffected by the fact or purpose of such occupation The agreements by which it was attempted to prolong his interest in the claim after he ceased to occupy it through the occupancy of others were clearly illegal and could not affect the rights of any one (§ 12 Donation act)

When Warwick's settlement commenced upon the Marshfield claim—August 4 1854—it was vacant land There was no one else living upon it or claiming to and it was clearly open to settlement under the donation act and if any number of people settled on it thereafter for the purposes of business or trade that did not make the place a town site within the meaning of the statute but such persons were either trespassers or occupants under the owner—Warwick A settler under the donation act has the legal estate in his donation from the date of his settlement and no number of people can deprive him of it by occupying it as a town site or otherwise (Chapman v School District 1 Deady 113 Fields v Squires 1 1 Saw, Mezner v Vaughan, 2 Saw 272 Adams v Burke 3 Saw 418)

But it is alleged, and there is evidence tending to prove the allegation that Warwick's settlement under the donation act was fraudulent and void because not made for himself but for Davis or Tolman But the plaintiff is not in a condition to question the legality of Warwick's settlement and occupation and the patent to him thereon Equity does not have jurisdiction to affect or set aside a patent or to hold the patentee as a trustee for another except upon the ground of an antecedent equity in the plaintiff which was disregarded or overlooked in the issuing of such patent (Stark v Starrs 6 Wall , 410 Frisbie v Whitney 9 Wall 196)

The interest of the plaintiff if any is subsequent to the settlement occupation proof and entry of Warwick Prima facie the premises had become the property of Warwick before the plaintiff's occupation began The legality of Warwick's settlement and occupation was then exclusively a question between him and the United States and until such entry was canceled by the latter neither the inhabitants of Marshfield nor any one for them was entitled to enter the land as a town site Rightfully or wrongfully the land had been granted to another before there were any occupants of lots in Marshfield other than the donee thereof The plaintiff is therefore without any established interest in or right to the premises and therefore has no standing in a court of equity to question the legality of the patent to Warwick or the sufficiency of the grounds upon which it is sued

But a contest was had in the land department between the inhabitants of Marshfield and Warwick upon the question of the validity of his entry which was decided in favor thereof

In that contest the only objection made to the donation entry was, that being upon unsurveyed lands the settler was not entitled to commute the required residence thereon by paying for the land at the end of one year's residence at the rate of $1 25 per acre And that question being one of law merely depending for its solution upon the proper construction of § 1 of the act of February 14 1853 which provides that settlers under the donation act who have located or may hereafter locate public land of which survey shall have been made or may hereafter be had shall after one year's occupation in lieu of the residence required by that act be permitted to pay $1 25 per acre for the lands so claimed located and surveyed as aforesaid this court might now if the plaintiff had any interest in or right to the premises review the action of the land department thereon and annul it if erroneous But as it is that action can only be reviewed in a suit by the United States to cancel and set aside the patent on the ground that it was illegally issued

But even if the plaintiff could maintain a suit to affect this patent yet no mere question of fact decided by the land department in the progress of the matter or which might have been made therein can now be reviewed by this court except for fraud or mistake other than an error in judgment in estimating the value or effect of evidence (Johnson v Towsley 13 Wall 83 Shipley v Cowen 1 Otto 340 Aiken v Ferry C C Dis of O Nov 7 1879 Stephens v Cragie Id Nov 18 9)

Therefore the questions whether Warwick's settlement occupation and entry were in fact for himself or for Davis or Tolman or whether the Marshfield claim was occupied as a town site or settled upon for purposes of business or trade at or prior to Warwick's settlement thereon cannot be enquired of in this suit For although these questions were not specifically made in the contest in the land department they were plainly within the scope of the enquiry and might have been raised and decided if the contestants had [illegible] Impliedly the decision of the secretary of the interior—that the Warwick entry was valid and lawful—included every [illegible] fact that might properly have been raised and decided in the progress of the contest concerning it If the rule were otherwise this case is a good illustration of the [illegible] vexation and delay which would [illegible] procuring of titles by settlers on the public lands As has been stated the contest in the land department was made upon the proposition that the Warwick [illegible] unsurveyed could not be [illegible] Warwick's removal [illegible] thereon of less than two years [illegible] therefore was [illegible] abandonment of his settlement [illegible] [illegible] the premises [illegible] [illegible]

But it appears that the [illegible] were brought before the department [illegible] a new trial

On May 11 18[illegible] the register and receiver [illegible] by the plaintiff [illegible] these [illegible] commissioner [illegible] mitted the same to [illegible] commendation that the [illegible] on September 30 18[illegible] was refused by [illegible]

Upon the whole there is no equity in this bill or any ground upon which it can be maintained It is therefore dismissed with cost. The same decree will be entered in the cases of the following named plaintiffs against the same defendant W F Deshner Nos 489 490 J[illegible] Bear 491 George Wolf No 492 Frederick [illegible] No [illegible] [illegible] Webster No [illegible] [illegible] No [illegible] C B Golden No [illegible] William Temple No [illegible]
